The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

ORAL ORDER*:

Heard both sides. Perused the material placed before me.

Petitioner is aggrieved by the inaction of the respondent in implementing the orders passed by the Principal District and Sessions Judge, Medak in Criminal Appeal No. 149 of 2003, for release of the seized stocks.

The learned counsel for the petitioner represented that challenging the order passed by the learned District Judge, a Criminal Revision petition had been filed before this Court and the same was also dismissed on 16.3.2005.

In view of the said fact, it is needless to say that consequent upon the dismissal of the Criminal Revision Petition, the order of the learned District Judge, Medak shall have to be complied with.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the respondent is directed to take appropriate steps to release the stocks in compliance of the orders of the learned District and Sessions Judge, Medak, forthwith.

With the above directions, the writ petition is allowed at the stage of admission. No costs.
